Recap

Winter Fellowship

By: Josh Rosinger

The winter fellowship was a great time. We were able spend time in the castle. The castle made the time so much more fun. We were able to do so many different things outside. Inside we were able to play some sweet games like floor hockey. Some people stayed up all night during the first night. Everyone had fun, even though some people were a little crippled. Next year it would be nice to see a few more people, even though there were quite a few people there. So if you didn't come you should think about coming next year.

Spring Conclave

By: Landon Bitker

Spring conclave is coming up, on May 15th - 17th, and it'll be a great way to enjoy the spring weather. As most of us know this will be the first opportunity for new candidates to go through their ordeal. For those already through their ordeal their will be a brotherhood ceremony, good food, great friends, and fellowship. It'll be a awesome weekend to see old friends and welcome a few new faces!

OA Member Venture to

Canada

Our names are Max Reetz, David Rose, and Erik Bullock and we are a part of Troop 211, Sartell, MN. This summer, we are going to embark with other scouts from across the country as part of the Order of the Arrow Canadian Odyssey Program, based out of the Northern Tier National High Adventure program. First we will go to the Charles L. Sommers Wilderness Canoe Base in Ely, MN. Then our group will be transported across the Canadian border to the Donald Rogert Canoe Base near Atikokan, Ontario. From there we will be doing a completely new voyage that no other OA Wilderness Voyage has done. We will spend seven days in the famous Quetico Provincial Park repairing portage trails. After that week of service and fellowship, we spend a week paddling back to the United States and the Sommers Base. We hope to enjoy the time with fishing, swimming and more. By the way, the director of the OA Wilderness voyage this year is Davy Warner, who was Naguonabe Lodge Chief a few years ago.

Spring Conclave registration is due in the Scout Office Monday, May 7th
