Allstate Foundation “Hands in Community Grant” Good Turn for Scouts

Cub Scout Day Camps prove more affordable for over 500 Cub Scouts in Central Minnesota this summer upon the receipt of a $1,000 “Hands in Community Grant” from the Allstate Foundation.

“Scouting is truly one of the best youth-serving programs out there to support” stated Scott Burlet of the Burlet Agency. The grant was made possible by Mr. Scott Burlet, an agent for Allstate Insurance, who serves as a key volunteer for the Central Minnesota Council, Boy Scouts of America and specifically the Becker community.

“The Allstate Foundation is pleased to recognize Allstate agents for distinguished service with a $1,000 “Hands in Community Grant” to the nonprofit organization where they volunteer their time” said a representative from the Allstate Foundation.

By supporting the volunteerism of the agency force with monetary gifts to local organizations, the Allstate Foundation helps make a greater impact in the communities where agents live and work, and in the future we all share.

In 2010, the Allstate Foundation doubled its grant amount to make an even greater local impact in the community. The donation to the Central Minnesota Council, BSA will be applied to Scouterships (families in need of financial assistance) and supplies for several Day Camp Programs in the 12 county service area of the Central Minnesota Council, BSA.

“The donated dollars from the Allstate Foundation are greatly appreciated and will be put to good use to help the families in need of some assistance to attend the Day Camp program. And, the volunteer leadership that Scott has provided for Scouts and Scouting is priceless” said Wade Bastian, Finance Director for the Central Minnesota Council, BSA.

The Central Minnesota Council, BSA’s mission is to prepare young people to make ethical and moral choices over their lifetimes by instilling in them the values of the Scout Oath and Law. The responsibility of the Central Minnesota Council, BSA is to build, maintain, grow, and assist Scouting program efforts in the 12 county service area. The Central Minnesota Council, BSA’s part in Scouting is paramount to the success of local Scouting Troops & Packs.
