

Qannik Winter Training School

January 21, 22, 23, 2011

Parker Scout Reservation

Camp Qannik is a weekend winter camping school designed to have fun in the Snow. As a bonus you may learn some basics skills needed to get the scouts out and enjoying the best 6 months of the year.

- The program is specific for 1st time campers at our training site. Friday night starts off with basic training demos on clothing, sleeping systems, first aid (winter specific), and food. The program also offers instruction on shelter building, equipment needed in the winter, winter travel, and fun winter games.
- We also offer snow shoeing, X country skiing, and shooting sports opportunities on Saturday
- Stay inside Friday night and outside Saturday night (optional)

Come join us to “Learn how to include winter camping in your troop’s program”; winter camping for “fun” not for survival, gourmet meals, quality camaraderie, activities you can include in your weekend. Camping at its finest!! Opportunities are available to be on staff for future programs. (Maximum – 12 per weekend)

This program is based on the ever popular Alpha Lupus winter training, for more information go to; <http://alphalupus.weebly.com/>
